

KORA MARIA MAKARSKA

kora.makarska@uconn.edu | 475-449-1882 | Norwalk, United States
06854

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Dedicated student interested in applying excellent communication and interpersonal skills to a coordination role. I have a desire to take on new challenges, and bring along a great work ethic, friendliness, and adaptability.

SKILLS

- Analyzing and synthesizing data
- Operating RedCap
- Friendly, positive attitude
- Trained in behavioral assessment tests (CORSI, CTOPP, KTEA, TOWRE2, WJ3, WJ4, PPTV4 etc.)

WORK HISTORY

Research Assistant & Project Coordinator | 08/2021 - CURRENT
BrainLens - Storrs, CT

- Verified data in accordance with specified research protocol, entering data into computer database.
- Adhered to standards in areas involving data collection, research protocols and regulatory reporting.
- Organized and maintained records, inventory and materials.
- Utilized RedCap to input data gathered from assessments.

Customer Service Associate | Realty Plans - 07/2020 - 01/2022
Stamford, CT

- Addressed inquiries, resolved customer issues and managed customer relations.
- Organized and prioritized tasks and activities and worked within strict timeframes and deadlines.

Preschool Assistant Teacher | Polish Saturday School 09/2015 - 09/2018
- Stamford, CT

- Assisted with implementation of approved lesson plans and daily classroom schedule.
- Helped facilitate indoor and outdoor play, parent-teacher conferences and keeping classroom clean with diligent attention to each support task.

EDUCATION

University of Connecticut, Storrs, CT

Bachelor of Science: Biology

Brien McMahon High School, Norwalk, CT

06/2018

High School Diploma

Liceum Ogólnokształcące NOWA Sarzyna, Nowa Sarzyna, Poland

06/2015

High School Diploma

CERTIFICATION

Completed CITI Program online courses for Human Subjects Research in Biomedical Research and Social/Behavioral Research

LANGUAGES

Polish

Native or Bilingual